Prof. Hassan Maghraby is the Honorary EFRE president. He is the Chairman obstetrics & gynecology department from 2014 to 2015. He is professor of obstetrics and Gynecology Alexandria University 2000-current time, Director of Alexandria-Hayat IVF Center from 1995-2020, Director of the university ART unit and center of excellence from 1992-2010., and Director of the university maternity hospital from 2010-2012 5. He is a Fellow University of Pennsylvania USA 1988-1990.

It is my honor and pleasure to present the first issue of the EFRE's scientific journal (JRME). The tremendous growth in the field of infertility and reproduction over the past few years, created a need for an archival journal to publish the latest research work with quick and efficient peer reviewing. We anticipate that this step will be of much interest to young authors waiting a long time in well-established journals. Research discoveries are happening at a fast pace, this journal will provide an ideal forum for the exchange of scientific knowledge and new ideas in terms of full-length papers, surveys, reviews, case studies, and debates. The intention of our journal is to create a space for the generation of new knowledge, debate, and collaboration between national and international members.

It is a matter of pride for us to have excellent editorial board members from well-known institutes. We aim to have the best quality publications, and with every issue, we are continuously trying to improve the outcome. We look forward to more exciting research and breakthroughs from all over the world. I would like to extend a very warm personal welcome to all our readers and the members of our editorial board, and looking forward to having you along with our authors in the future.
